Carry memories, leaving footprints in the sands of time

Away from the city noise and deep into the heart of the desert, Al Faya Lodge offers guests the opportunity to explore the true beauty of the Mlieha region which was nominated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

soul & senses

The foothills of sandy mountains play host to one of the region's most unique hotels. Al Faya Lodge rises out of the enchanting dunes that surround it, offering a boutique experience like no other.

location

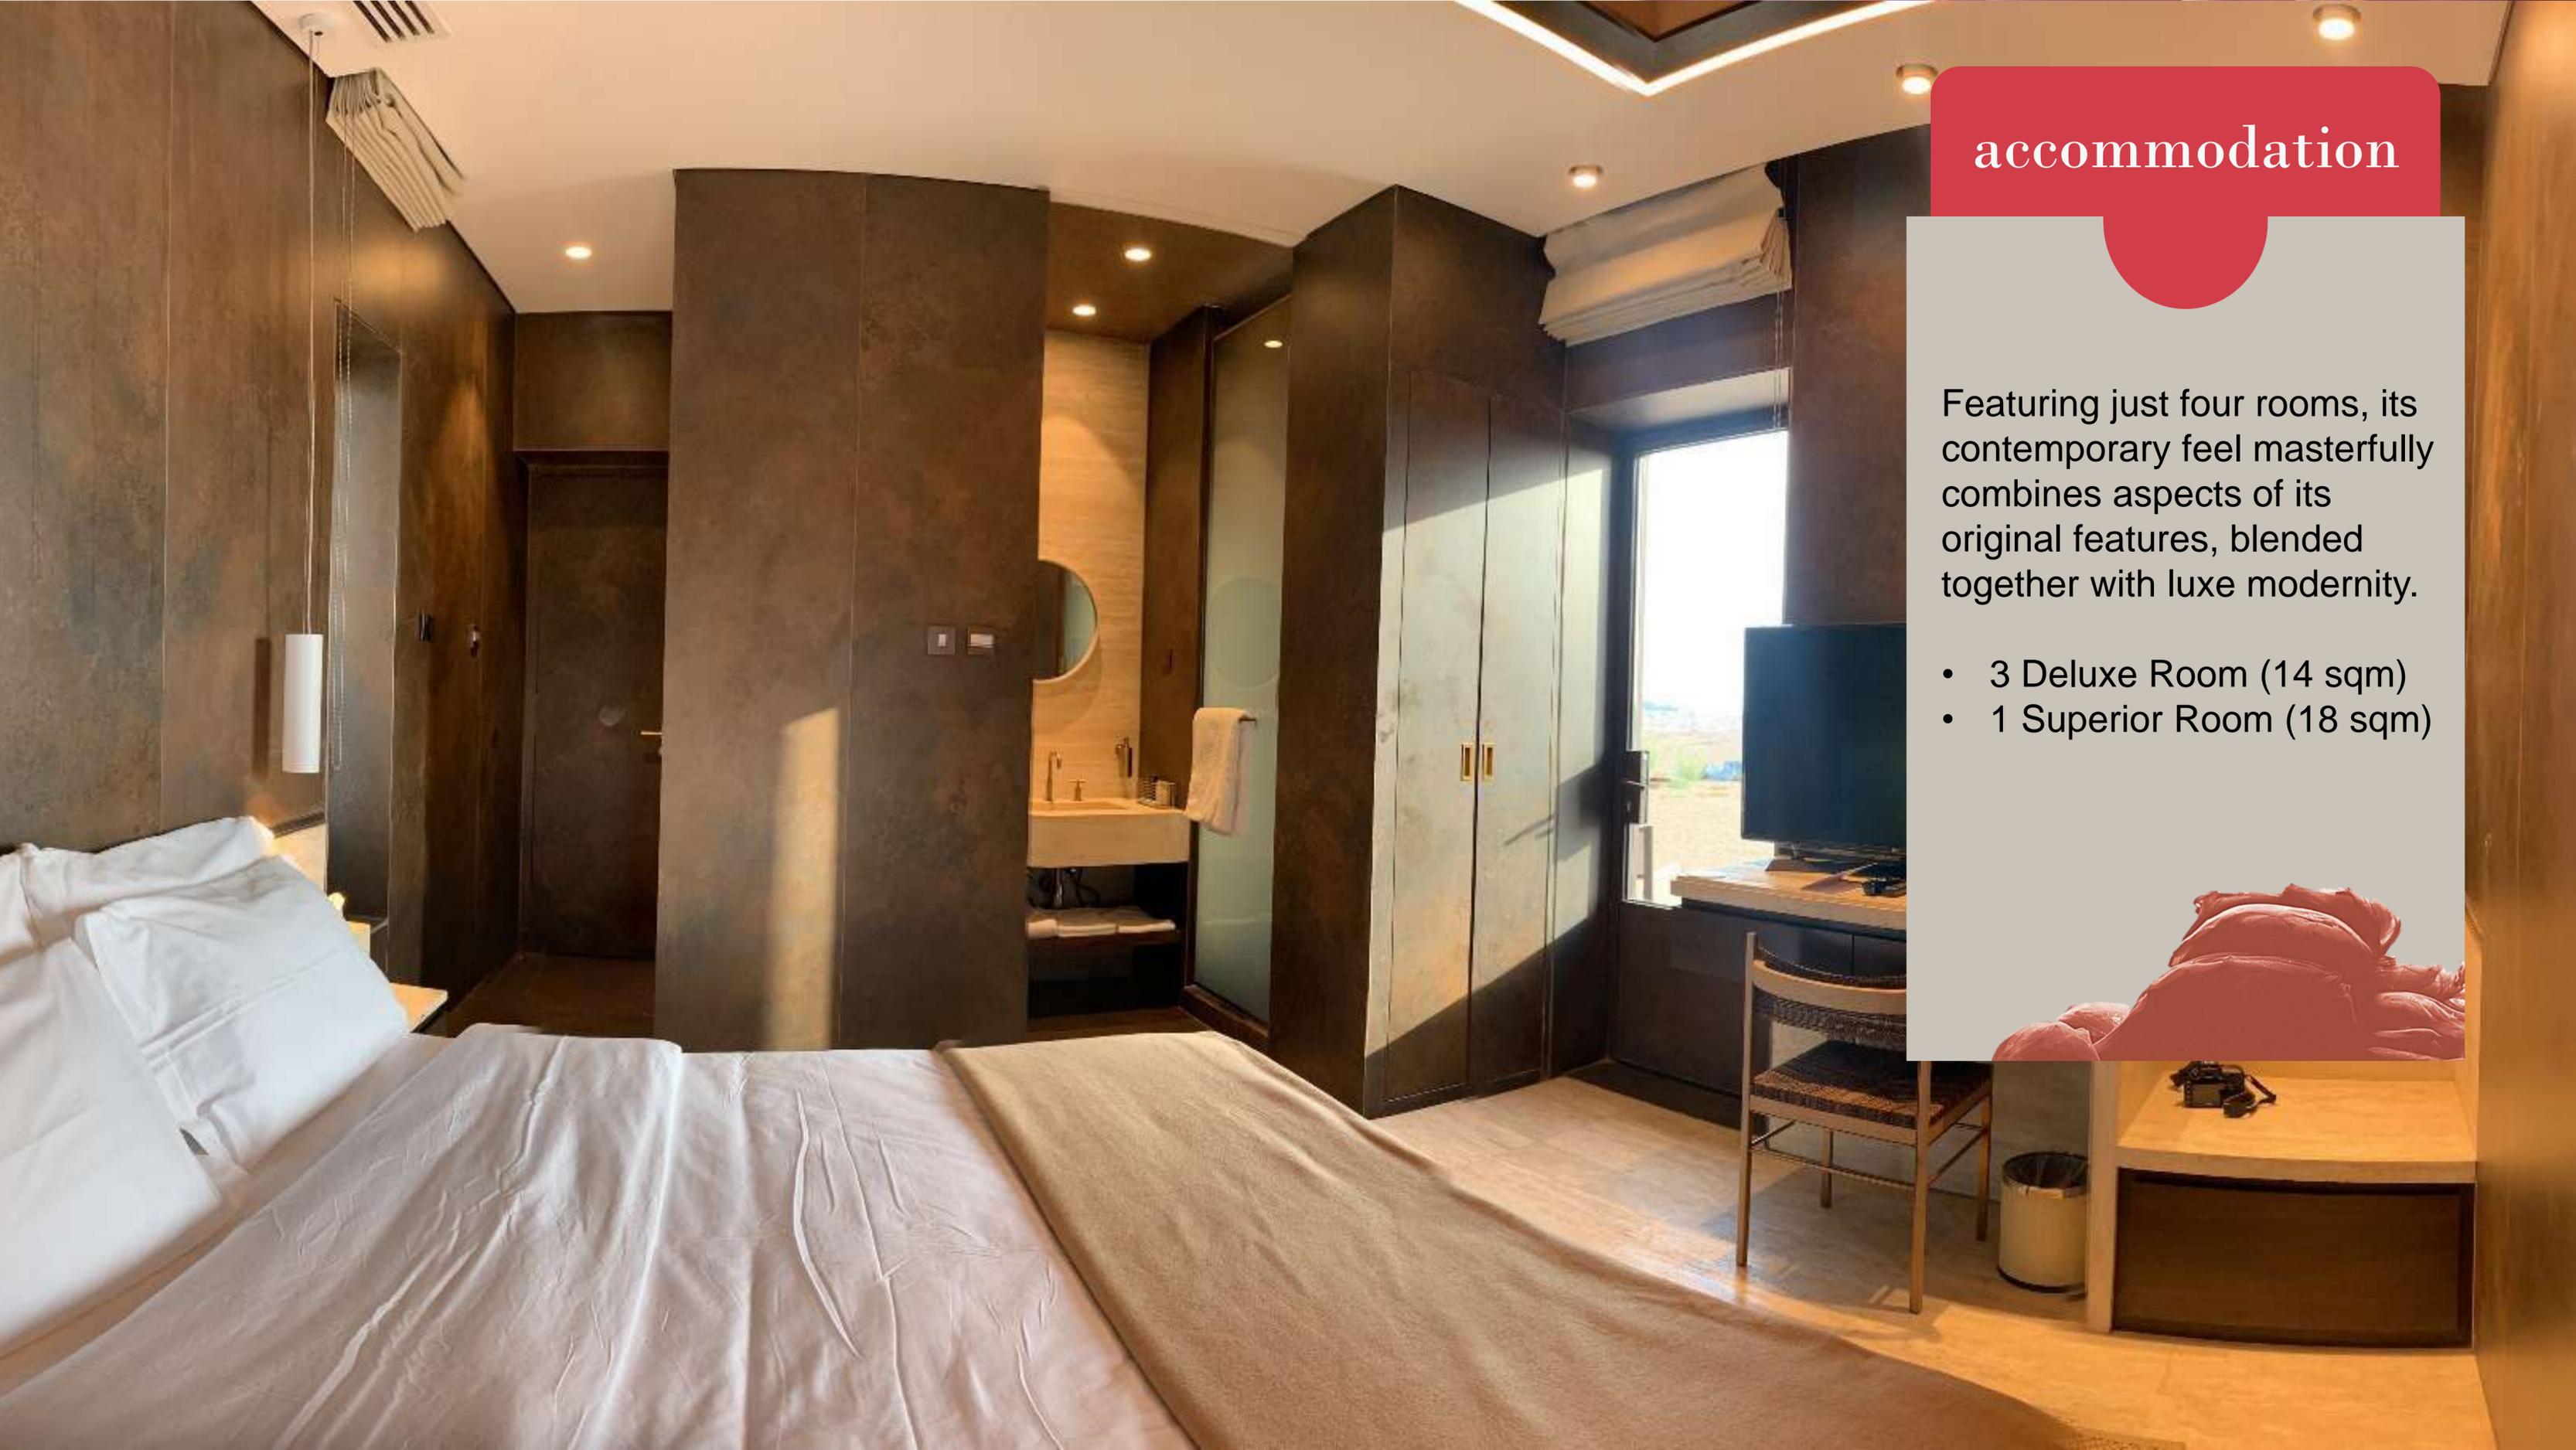

Mleiha is home to a number of significant sites, including Bronze Age tombs, historical caves and pre-Islamic forts. A wealth of fascinating artefacts, from camel skeletons to pottery and iron tools have been discovered here, with many on display in the outstanding Mleiha Archaeological Centre.

accommodation

Featuring just four rooms, its contemporary feel masterfully combines aspects of its original features, blended together with luxe modernity.

- 3 Deluxe Room (14 sqm)
- 1 Superior Room (18 sqm)

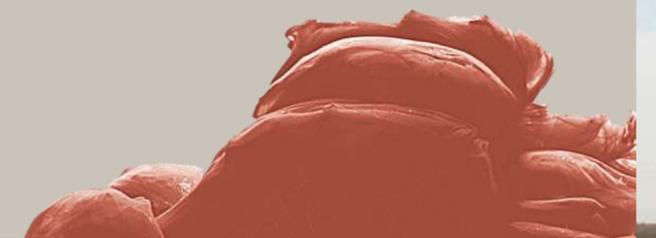

dining

The roadhouse type concept for the restaurant at Al Faya Lodge will provide an intimate and private setting, with a seating capacity of approximately 40 guests.

Guests can enjoy contemporary a la carte menu for breakfast, lunch and dinner, with dishes including mohalla, khoboz khameer and sharing mezze platters.

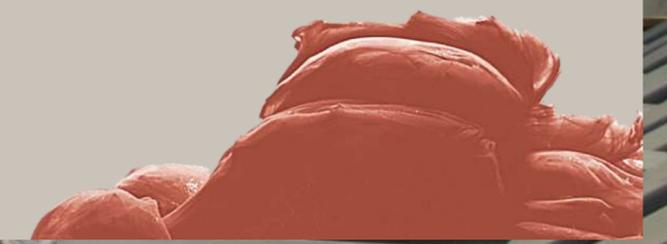

The 118sqm spa is set amongst the same dunes and infused water, thermal and relaxation experiences, all which touch on the five senses.

Facilities include a salt inhalation room, shower walk, herbal sauna and a 128sqm outdoor saltwater pool.
