About Folly

There is no more idyllic or romantic setting than folly in which to celebrate your wedding. With a prime location in Souk Madinat Jumeirah, folly comprises of an indoor dining area and an open, interactive kitchen, as well as stunning spacious yet intimate outdoor bars and terraces. The rooftop at folly is perfect for sundowners while soaking up the views of the Madinat waterways or kicking back under the stars and taking in the stunning sight of the Burj Al Arab.

folly is run by homegrown celebrity chefs, Nick Alvis and Scott Price. With award-winning dining, bespoke packages, and a dedicated team of chefs, sommeliers and an event planner who understands that it's the little details that make all the difference, we're poised to plan everything to perfection.

folly's interiors are natural, rustic, and organic, with a warm and inviting earth-toned decor. It's informal and relaxed yet refined. The flooring is concrete and the seating is mixed with various sized tables, banquettes and leather upholstered chairs.

The lighting is clean and bright but transitions to a warm low-lit feel in the evening. A lot of greenery and exposed brick walls give our interiors an authentic and cozy feel.

Adjacent to the main restaurant, the spacious Outdoor Terrace & Lounge has its own bar with fantastic views and an intimate, secret-garden feel.

The Garden Terrace can seat up to 50 and has a standing capacity of 100 guests. It is equipped with its own bar and dance-floor area
