eleven

We cater for all types of wedding - from Arabic to Indian weddings with everything in between. We treat each wedding as our ultimate priority and ensure to limit the number of events we take on each year in order to provide you with the highest level of service & attention. This dedication keeps us among the best wedding planners in the world.

Every event that we work on is completely unique & every event different. Some of our clients like a very 'hands-on' approach, whilst others prefer us to handle everything on their behalf. As such, we avoid 'set packages', and instead work with each client to create a bespoke quotation based on their actual needs, requirements & wishes.
