LISA GOLDIN

Our sassy Johannesburg singer-songwriter, Lisa Goldin is a bundle of fiercedom. Rubbed shoulders with the greats whilst touring London, Ibiza, Dubai and Asia, her performances have led to sharing stages with Ed Sheeran, Jessie J, plus supporting Scouting For Girls and Barbara Tucker. That's Goldin for you :>

Her passion for songwriting started in London, with debut album "HerStory" enabling her with Vivienne Westwood sponsoring her wardrobe and playing originals at GuilFest 2008.

Most of Goldin's career has been outside her home country, until 2013. In South Africa, Goldin released singles "My Fire", "Really Doesn't Matter", "Who Are You, Again?" Album and "Remix 4 Goldin" EP airing nationally on radio and TV. Hit song "My Fire" was listed as 2nd most played song on No.1 radio station, Hot919FM 2016-2017.

The second album has a unique twist being launched with a book and off the back of that Goldin published "40 Ways To Tame Musicians" in 2017. The #WhoAreYouAgain Project, is about what it takes to be a successful artist and for anyone hungry enough understand how to sustain a long career in the music industry.

2016 was a path back to Asia where Goldin spent time performing in China, South Korea and the UAE. Since 2019, Goldin works and living in the UAE, traveling back and forth to South Africa for songwriting ventures and shows. Shortly after her return to Dubai, 2019 saw Goldin nominated as a top ten finalist for Yasalam's UAE Emerging Talent Competition.

We've been waiting for four years for her next album, "Something I Used To Wear"...TA-DAH! The first single from Album No.3, is called "Hope" with her African heartbeat pounding proudly from the start! Following that is boy-girl crush titled "Three Days"...and well, you should really go and listen to it...!

Career highlights are songwriting and production works with British hit songwriter Sarah deCourcy (Armin Van Buuren, Little Mix, Kylie Minogue, Example, PCD), Laurence Hobbs of Charter House Music (Pixie Lott, Zara, Penny Foster, Nottingham Music) Stoyan Stoyanov (EMAAR, Sheik's Public Address in UAE, Pasha Scripnic) and Chris Nicolaides (BBC, Chesney Hawkes, Mika).
